FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

We are at the end of the year in the month of Adar and the beginning of the New Year in the month of Nisan. Both months have important festivals - Purim and Passover.

May all take extra care as the pandemic is still quite active. Only thing we can be thankful for is that the vaccines have been effective in making life more livable.

Adar is the 12th month on the Jewish calendar counting from Nisan. "When Adar enters, joy increases," the Talmud says. This reaches its climax on the 14th of the month, as we celebrate Mordechai and Esther's triumph over the wicked Haman. The spirit of Purim permeates the entire month, making it a time of unparalleled rejoicing and good mazal ("fortune") for the Jewish people.

During a Jewish leap year, which occurs seven times in a 19-year cycle (approximately once every three years), there is an added month called "Adar I," inserted before this month of Adar (termed "Adar II" in leap years). This aligns the lunar months with the solar year, ensuring that the holidays fall in the proper seasons.

Which brings us to Adar, the month of Purim, the month that directly precedes Nissan. From the Torah's perspective, Adar is the last month of the Hebrew calendar. Adar is often described as the "month of darkness," because during Haman's time we were closer than ever to suffering total annihilation. The light of Nissan, the light of liberation, could have been extinguished, had Haman's plot succeeded. Through the miracle of Purim, the darkness turned to light.

Purim Practices

- 1) We read the Megillah twice, both at night (to celebrate the faith that we found in the midst of darkness) and during the day (to celebrate the fact that our faith was validated openly and joyously).
- 2) We give two kinds of food to at least one friend. This gift is not meant to alleviate need, but rather to create unity. We celebrate being part of a people who lives on miracles.
- 3) We give money to the poor. This spreads the pleasure of feeling cared for, and opens the hearts of both giver and recipient.
- 4) We strengthen our belief in G-d's presence in the real world by having a whopper of a feast. Invite all your friends. Wear a costume to celebrate the fact that things are not always as they seem. Drink until you are so intoxicated that you recognize there are no longer heroes and villains -- just characters in G-d's unending play that reveals His love and presence.

Holidays and observances

- 3 Adar (515 BCE) – Second Temple completed
- 7 Adar (1393 BCE) – Birth of Moses
- 7 Adar (1273 BCE) – Death of Moses
- 14 Adar (474 BCE) – Purim victory celebrated in the Persian Empire
- 15 Adar (474 BCE) – Purim Victory Celebrated in Shushan
- 25 Adar (561 BCE) – Death of Nebuchadnezzar (Jeremiah 52:31).

Nisan (or Nissan), the first month of the Jewish calendar (according to the Torah), coincides with March-April on the civil calendar. The Torah calls it chodesh ha-aviv—the month of spring, as it marks the beginning of the spring months.

On the first day of Nisan in the year 2448 from creation (1313 BCE), two weeks before the Exodus, G-d showed Moses the crescent new moon, instructing him regarding the setting of the Jewish calendar and the mitzvah of sanctifying the new month. “This month shall be for you the head of months, the first of the months of the year” (Exodus 12:2). This ushered in the first Jewish month and commenced the lunar calendar that Jews have been following ever since. It was the first mitzvah (“commandment”) given to the newly born nation of Israel, even before the exodus from Egypt.

Passover

It is in this month that we celebrate the eight-day holiday of Passover, from the 15th through the 22nd of Nissan. It commemorates the Jewish people’s miraculous redemption from slavery in Egypt, and the birth of the Jewish nation. We observe the anniversary of the Exodus each year by removing all leaven from our possession for this week, eating matzah and telling the story of the redemption to our children. By following the rituals of Passover, we have the ability to relive and experience the true spiritual freedom that our ancestors achieved.

Counting Sefirah

It took seven weeks - 49 days - from when the Jewish people left Egypt until they received the Torah from G-d at the foot of Mount Sinai, celebrated today as the holiday of Shavuot. It is explained that the 49 days that connect Passover with Shavuot correspond to the 49 drives and traits of the human heart. Each day saw the refinement of one of these sefirot (“traits”), bringing the people of Israel one step closer to spiritual perfection. Each year, we retrace this inner journey with our “counting of the Omer.” Beginning on the second night of Passover, we count the days and weeks to the holiday of Shavuot, the “Festival of Weeks”.

It is mentioned in the Talmud that according to one tradition, the three patriarchs of the Jewish people - Abraham (1948–2123 from creation, 1813–1638 BCE), Isaac (2048–2228 from creation, 1713–1533 BCE) and Jacob (2108–2255 from creation, 1653–1506 BCE)—all were born and passed away in the month of Nisan.

Holidays and observances

- 1 Nisan Lunar new year, marking the month of Aviv (spring), as the first month of the year, which month was later called Nisan. The first national mitzvah was given to the Jewish people to fix the calendar to the new moon of Aviv, according to the Book of Exodus 12:1–2, 12:18. (c. 1456 BCE)
- 10 Nisan – Yom HaAliyah – Aliyah Day, Israeli national holiday
- 14 Nisan – Fast of the Firstborn – on 12 Nisan when the 14th falls on Sabbath
- 14 Nisan – Birkat Hachama is recited once every 28 years
- 14 Nisan - Passover seder meal and Haggadah on the going out of the 14th and eve of the 15th
- 15–21 Nisan (22 Nisan outside of Israel) – Feast of Matzot - Passover week
- 27 Nisan – Yom HaShoah (Holocaust and Heroism Remembrance Day) – on 26 Nisan or 28 Nisan when the 27th falls on Friday or Sunday respectively, interfering with Shabbat.

March 6, 13

April 3, 10, 24

Bring your own dairy breakfast.

Coffee served.

SUNDAY MORNING LEARN-IN

These past months, in spite of bad weather cancellations, Rabbi Daniel held discussions on the following insightful and exciting topics:

- “What is G-d” and “Walking with G-d.” Though He is incomprehensible, we stay linked at all times through faith, not by sight.
- “The Cup of Life.” Happiness is not bought. We must find balance between valuables and values.
- The Prophet Elijah and his influence on Judaic practice and our lives.
- The Torah, which existed before creation and is a compass of life, whose laws must be followed.

We look forward to better weather and seeing you among us in the near future.
